Who are the Members of the Scottish Youth Parliament?

MSYPs by gender

There are more MSYPs who identify as female than male.

The SYP Board has an equal gender split.

MSYPs with experience of care

11.29% of MSYPs reported having an experience of care. This is much higher than Scotland's population of young people as a whole (2%).

Sexual orientation of MSYPs

Over 39% of MSYPs identify as LGBTI+.

MSYPs who are young carers

Over 9% of MSYPs carry out roles as young carers in addition to their SYP duties, providing unpaid care for a family member.

MSYPs with disabilities

SYP is committed to removing barriers to representation for young people with disabilities. Nearly 17% of MSYPs consider themselves to have a disability.

MSYPs' ethnicity

More than 14% of MSYPs are from minority ethnic groups. According to the 2011 Census, the percentage of people in Scotland from minority ethnic groups is 4%.

MSYPs per SIMD decile

The Scottish Index of Multiple Deprivation (SIMD) breaks down Scotland into 6,505 areas, each containing around 800 people, ranked from 1 (most deprived) to 6,505 (least deprived). This pie chart records the percentage of MSYPs in each decile (grouping of 10%) of the SIMD scale.

There is a fairly even representation of MSYPs from all ten deciles.

Job aspirations

Only 21.8% of MSYPs want to work as a politician or elected official.

The Scottish Youth Parliament is the democratically elected voice of Scotland's young people. Our vision for Scotland is of a nation that actively listens to and values the meaningful participation of its children and young people.
